THE CAMPUS:

The University of Wisconsin Colleges is the freshman-sophomore liberal arts transfer institution within the world-renowned University of Wisconsin System. The UW Colleges comprises thirteen 2-year campuses around the state, each of which offers an excellent liberal arts and pre-professional education for students beginning work toward a bachelor’s degree. UW-Marshfield/Wood County is located in the Central Wisconsin community of Marshfield, a city of 20,000, with one of the largest private medical clinics and research institutes in the nation. The campus serves approximately 650 students who enjoy individual attention and one-on-one advising from faculty and staff who are dedicated to teaching excellence. Most students transfer to a 4-year degree granting UW institution, (UW-Stevens Point, UW-Eau Claire, and UW-Madison, are common choices) or to other public or private universities. UW-Marshfield/Wood County provides community outreach through educational and cultural arts programming. Marshfield is approximately 2 ½ hours north from Madison and 3 hours east from Minneapolis.
